

ROMAIN CANNONE: Fencing olympic champion into the world of business

 Friday, August 30th

 6:30pm to 8:00pm

 English

 Shanghai Office

Introduction:

We are delighted to welcome Romain Cannone, multiple World champion in Fencing for a groundbreaking conference, where we explore the compelling intersection of high-level sport and the world of business.

Join us to have the remarkable opportunity to delve into the journey of this exceptional athlete, whose path from his childhood in NYC – while their parents were expatriates – to the pinnacle of their sport, exemplifies the values we seek to learn and apply beyond the strips.

From early days on local fields to triumphs on the global stage, Romain Cannone has consistently shattered records, redefined limits, and demonstrated a relentless pursuit of excellence. Each victory, each setback has forged a resilient mindset and an unwavering motivation—a testament to the power of dedication and perseverance.

As we transition into the business realm, these qualities become invaluable assets. The focus, discipline, and strategic thinking required to excel in sport are mirrored in the boardroom and beyond.

Our discussions will illuminate how embracing these principles can drive innovation, foster leadership, and sustain success in the competitive landscape of business.

Join us as we embark on an inspiring journey, bridging the realms of sport and business to uncover strategies that lead to lasting achievements.

Event organized in cooperation with Saint-Gobain, Official Supporter of the Paris 2024 Olympics and Prime Fencing, Fencing Masterclass in Shanghai.

"Be humble, be ambitious!"

Our slogan defines the guiding principles of Prime Fencing. At Prime, we embrace both humility and ambition.

Humility helps us recognize our strengths as well as limitations, respect every opponent, and learn from each bout. It encourages continuous improvement and wise handling of both success and failure.

Ambition fuels our pursuit of excellence and pushes us to extend our limits. It inspires us to set high goals and pursue them with dedication.

By nurturing these qualities, we create an environment where respect, camaraderie and personal growth flourish, alongside an unwavering drive for improvement and excellence.

Prime Fencing is devoted to facilitating members' development in both sports' achievement and personal qualities.
