

Project Lab Manager

Location: Dongguan

Sector : Quality insurance

Starting date : ASAP

About the Company

With a wide range of services including quality assurance, CSR programs, audits, inspections, testing, certification and accreditation, consultancy and training, our client company covers the global needs of its clients from the product development phase to manufacturing, sourcing and getting product to market.

Job Responsibilities

- Communicate with management for job organization, client requests and test deadline targets.
- Manage the lab's technical support team (2 pers.) to assist and provide technical feedback to customers and operational support to other Dept.
- Develop the chemical labs' capacity in Asia by implementing test method development according to Groupe's strategy, with the support of either:
- Supervise chemical and physical method correlation between labs in France and Asia and Supervise project lab in Asia.
- Handle partner labs and subcontractors for chemical tests.
- Review offers and participate in preparation of tenders, contracts for international and local clients.
- Organize chemical seminars/webinars ad hoc for our clients.
- Hierarchically: to Dongguan General Manager
- Functionally: to Greater China and Vietnam Executive Director

Requirements

- Proficient in English & French is mandatory (writing and oral)
- Master's degree, major in analytical chemistry or relevant specialty.
- Relevant and similar work experience in analytical laboratory field will be an advantage.
- Have good presentation skill and knowledge on either footwear/textile/leather technologies.
- Honest person with good integrity nature, mature, enduring, responsible, & independent at work.
- Have a strong sense of customer service, good communication skills and can work under high pressure.
- Strong teamwork spirit.

Please send your resume to: sc-recruitment@ccifc.org

Mail subject : Application for Technical Support Manager - Asia