

Project Manager

Mission:

In a context of a strong turnover increase: coordinate internal and sometimes external resources in order to guarantee on time and expected quality deliveries

Responsibility:

Location: Zhongshan, Nantou

This key position demands special key skills in term of:

- Project Management: capabilities to define a roadmap, communicate functionally, reporting and update Production to Plant Manager,
- Capability to obtain and create emulation btw department, in the aim of coordinating,
- Industrialization: work with Method and Production Manager in order to define the most efficient and productive organization,
- Risk management: work with QM in order to define the key quality filter to guarantee the quality,
- Eventually work with R&D to debug quality issues.

Requirements:

- French native speaker with fluent in English, can communicate in Chinese;
- Familiar with Chinese culture and working environment;
- Bachelor degree or above in Engineering;
- Proven experience on Project Management, in industrial context, for at least 3 years
Injection experience should be a plus;
- Rigor, organization, leadership, anticipation, reactivity, adaptation to time constraints, creativity - Autonomous and voluntary; high capacity to manage several project on the same time.

Please send your resume to: sc-hr@ccifc.org